

Wiley-Blackwell Management and Organization Review Young Scholar Award

We are proud to announce the Wiley-Blackwell *Management and Organization Review Young Scholar Award to reward excellence in research.

The official journal of The International Association for Chinese Management Research.

Also sponsored by Peking University and Hong Kong University of Science and Technology.

Editor-in-Chief: Anne S. Tsui
Print ISSN: 1740-8776
Online ISSN: 1740-8784
Frequency: Three times a year

Management and Organization Review is dedicated to fostering growth in managerial and organizational research, with a particular focus on China. The Award aims to recognise the contributions of the young authors who have published in Management and Organization Review.

Winning articles will be selected from Management and Organization Review every two years. Eligible authors must be either PhD students or those who have received their degree no more than five years prior to the publication date of the article. The winning author will receive:

- 12 month complimentary membership to IACMR, including a subscription to Management and Organization Review (print and online)
- USD $2000.00
- A plaque and testimonial of Award

An award winner will be announced at each Biennial IACMR Conference. For upcoming conference details, please visit www.iacmr.org.

The awarded paper will be chosen every two years from articles published in Management and Organization Review. To be considered for future awards, submit your manuscript to Management and Organization Review today. Full submission guidelines can be found on the journal's homepage at www.interscience.wiley.com/journal/mor

