

International Association for Chinese
Management Research
(IACMR)

Mission

To advance research on management and organizations in the Chinese context, broadly defined.

By organizations in the Chinese context, we mean:

1. Chinese organizations operating on the Chinese mainland or outside,
2. Multinational corporations operating in any of the Chinese contexts.

Specific goals

1. To provide a forum for exchange of ideas and experience among researchers about management research in the Chinese context.
2. To facilitate international collaboration between management researchers from around the globe.
3. To promote the development of management research capabilities in China.

Research domain

1. Scientific analyses of individual, group, and firm behavior in the Chinese context as defined.
2. Cross cultural or comparative analyses of individuals, groups and organizational level issues of firms inside and outside the Chinese context.
3. Most importantly, creative methodologies, new theoretical developments, and cross-disciplinary analyses of individual, group, and firm phenomena.

Possible activities

1. Bi-annual conferences
2. Special topic research workshops
3. Collaborative research projects
4. Executive symposia on management in the Chinese context
5. Student mentorship
6. Electronic bulletin board, listserv or e-group for ongoing exchanges
7. Journal

Membership

We welcome as members any scholars, students, managers, or consultants who are interested in China-related management research.
